

Cinco de Mayo

Today's a Day to Celebrate

(to the tune of "London Bridge")

Today's a day to celebrate,
Celebrate, celebrate,
Today's a day to celebrate
Courage under fire.

The Mexican Army, they were poor,
They were poor, they were poor,
The Mexican Army, they were poor,
But that did not stop them.

They followed orders and charged ahead,
Charged ahead, charged ahead,
They followed orders and charged ahead,
Routing the French forces.

A great victory they did win,
They did win, they did win,
A great victory they did win,
In the Battle of Puebla.
